Fortress.

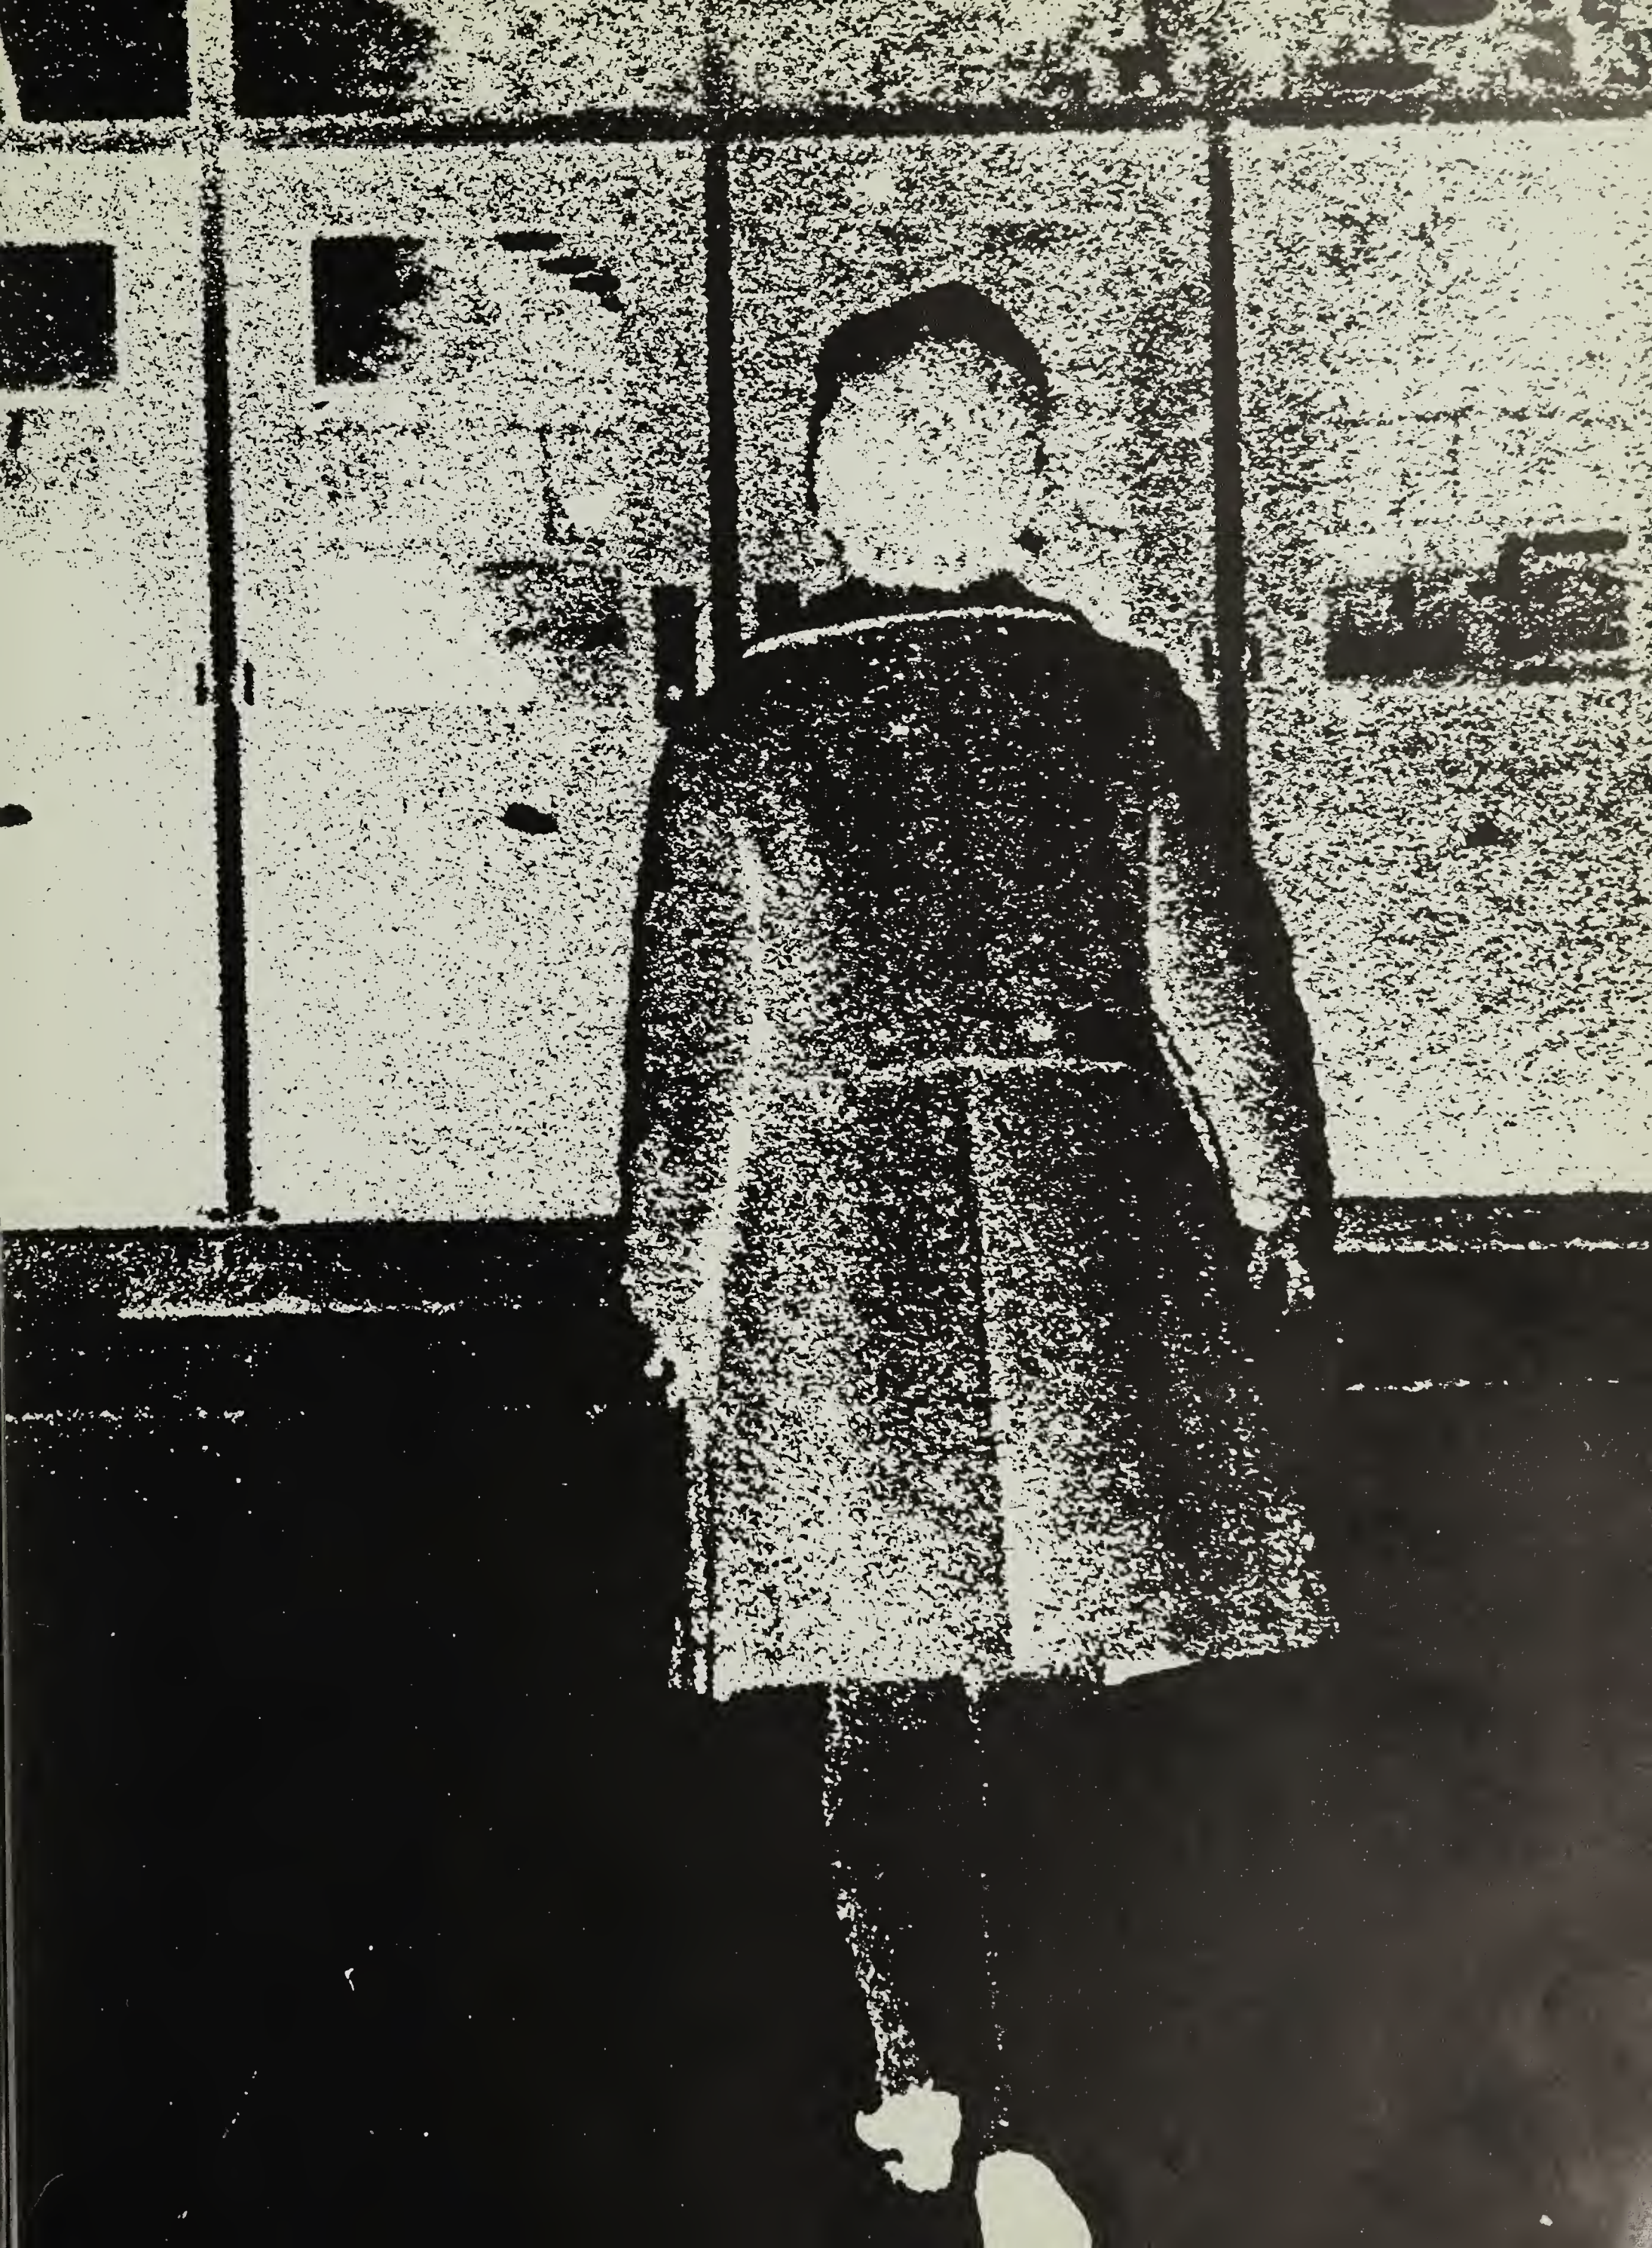

Question (kwés chon), I. an interrogative sentence calling for an answer.

The complexity of contemporary society has evolved through questioning.

Questioning is a reflection of thought; change is a reflection of questioning. When man fails to think and to question, he and his society fail to change. Without this change, society is stagnant. A stagnant society is a manifestation of an unquestioning, ignorant society.

Fort Hunt, as an educational institution, must change to progress. It is both a microcosm and a reflection of our environment. A bigger and more important world is before us. To make any changes outside, Fort Hunt must change within, questioning must begin here.

In order to effect any change outside of school and within, every person here must question himself and his world. We must make a personal commitment to question.

STOP

Did you know that outside of Fort
Hunt we must meet a bigger world?

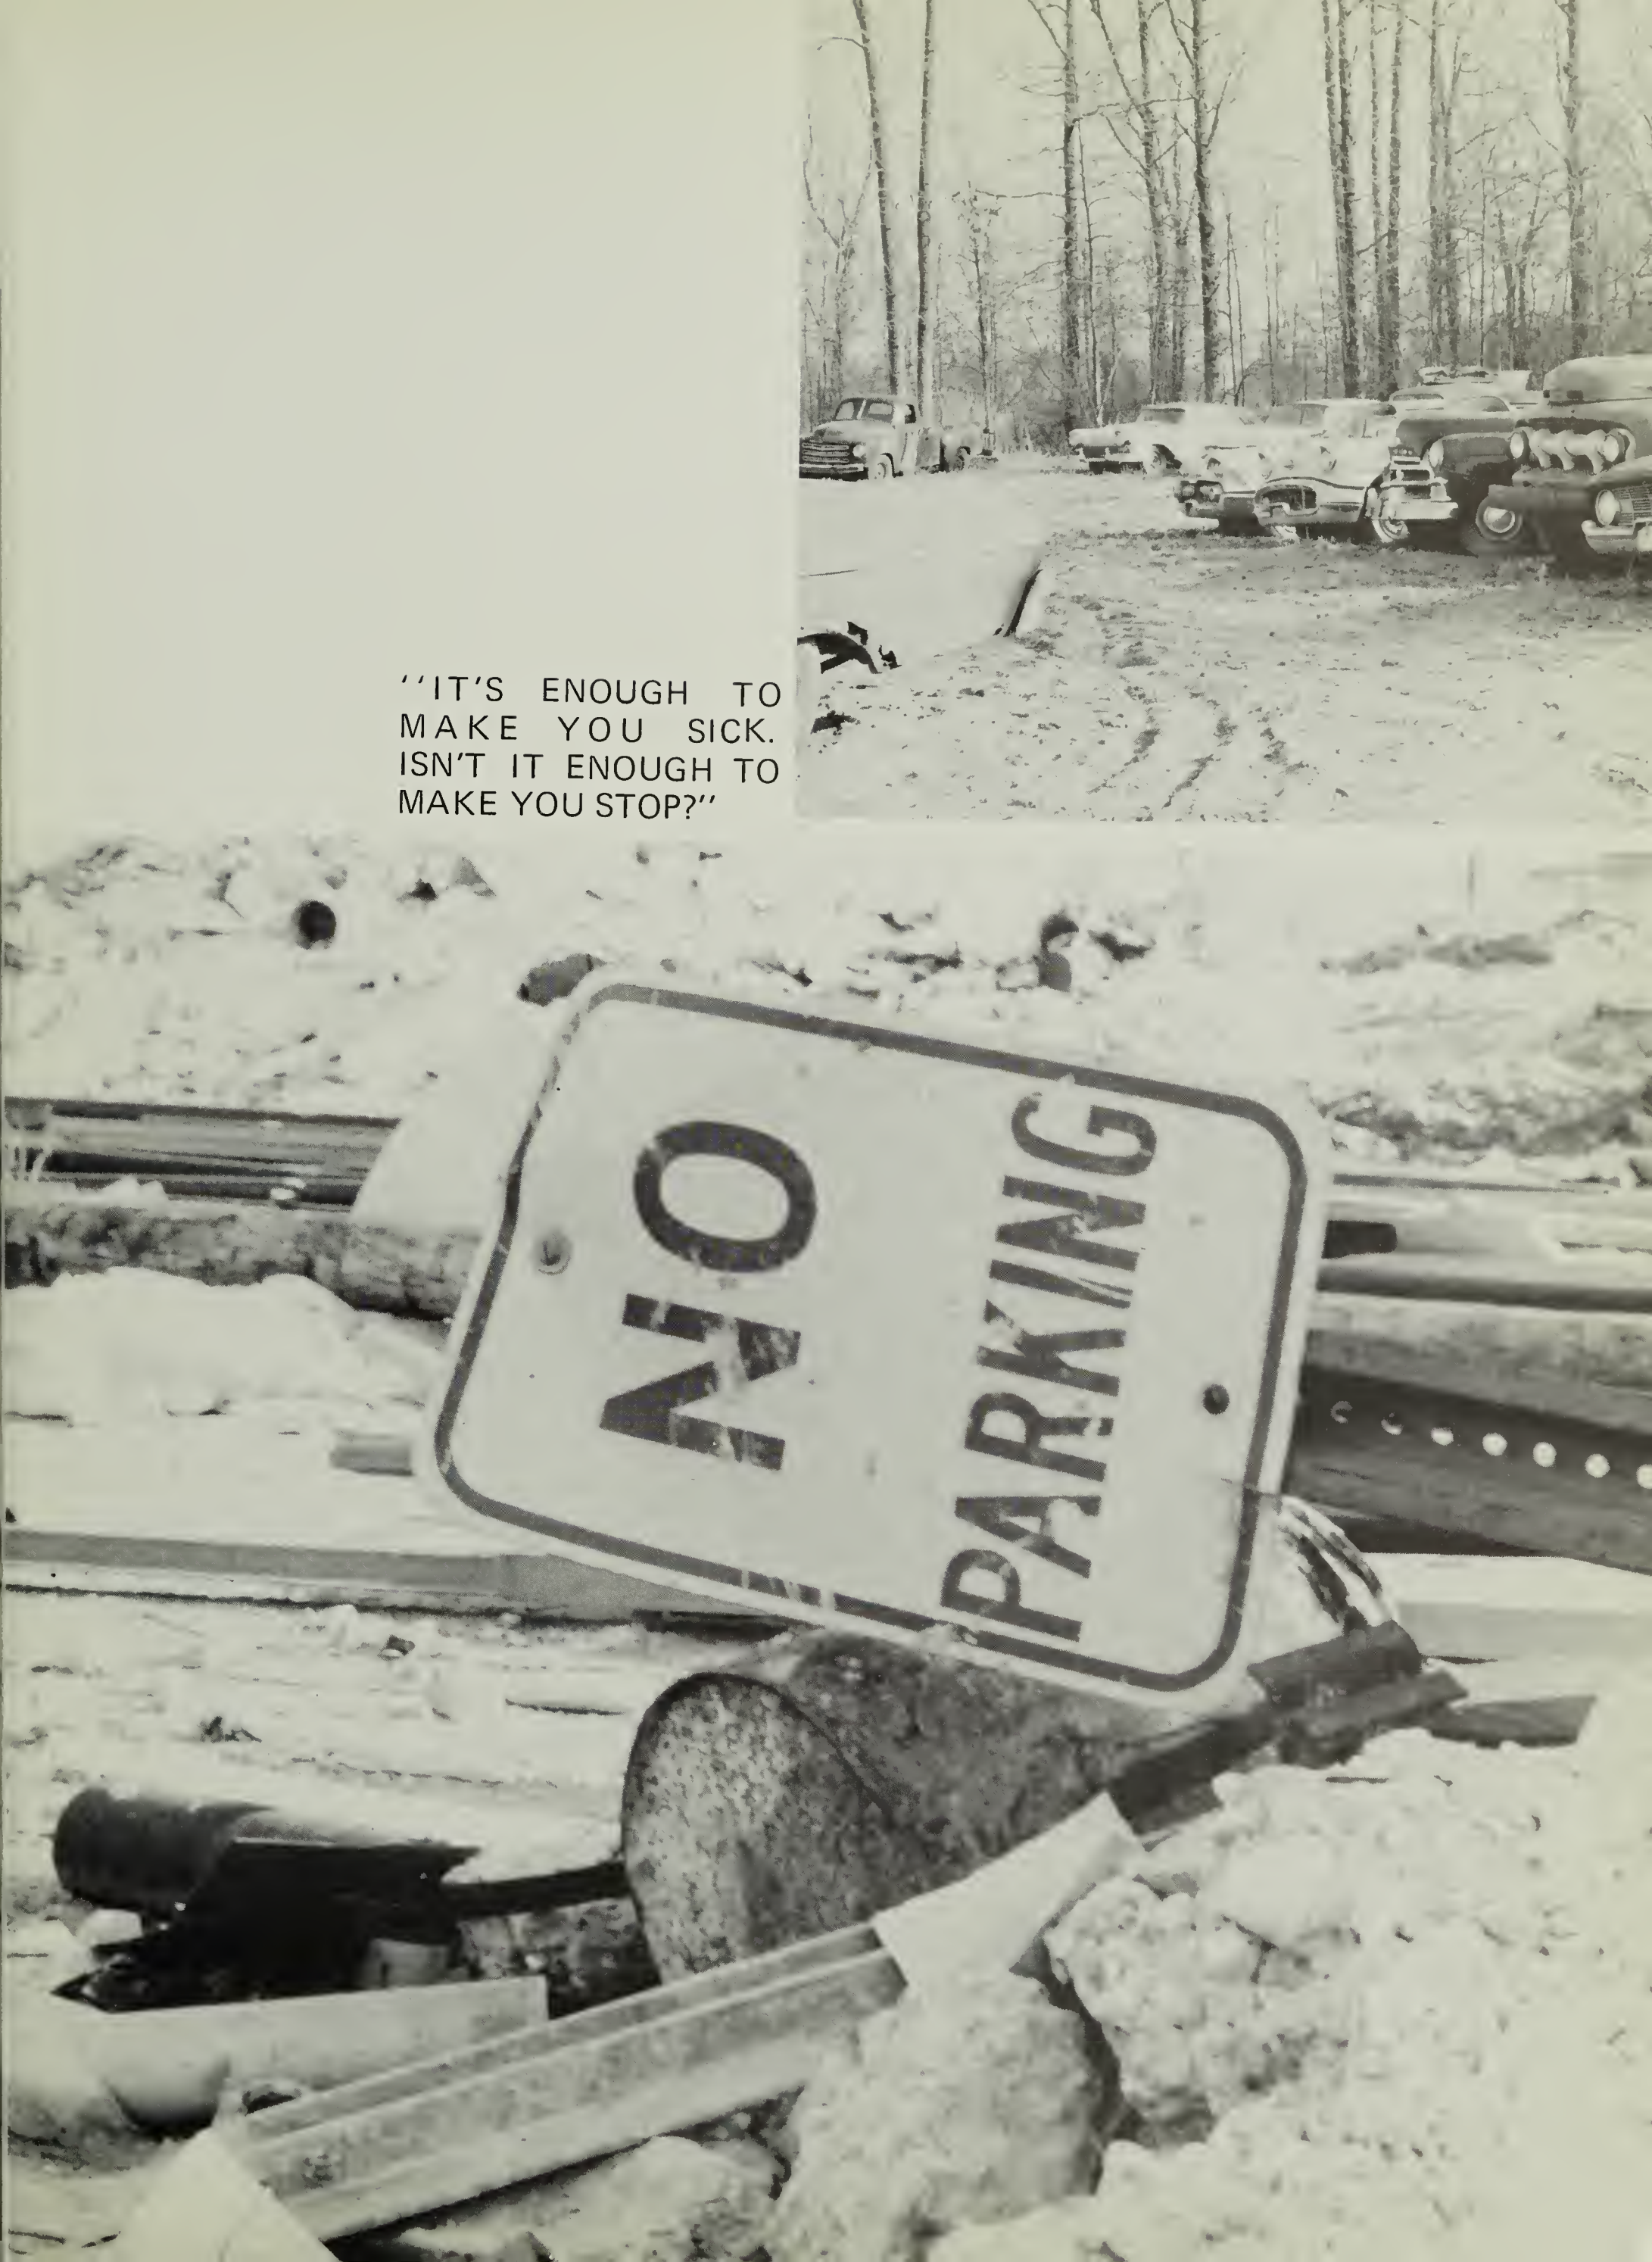

Did you know that four Americans have walked on the moon? Doesn't it seem strange to you that we haven't solved our problems here, yet?

''IT'S ENOUGH TO MAKE YOU SICK. ISN'T IT ENOUGH TO MAKE YOU STOP?''

The varied reactions to the Vietnam Moritorium exemplified the development of the questioning attitudes at Fort Hunt.

On November 15, these reactions were evident when headlights were turned on and black arm bands were worn. Even at the game, the far-reaching effects of the "Strike" were felt as cheerleaders Cricket Griffin and Sue Dixon wore American flags, while Kris Genuario wore a Peace button.

The Vietnam Symposium, after technical and Administrative delays, was held after school, December 10.

The Moritorium has provided a situation for individual expression at Fort Hunt. At least that's a beginning, isn't it?

MICHAEL Mich
JOHNSON

This year a student committee, sponsored by the S.C.A., addressed their grievances to the Fairfax County School Board on the possibility of an outside smoking area. This attempt failed. However, some good did come from these actions. The deplorable conditions of the students' bathrooms were recognized by parents, teachers, and the administration.

No Butts about it, something has to be done.

All illegal.

Why?

Pills to put you to sleep.
Pills to wake you up.
Pills to make you hungry.
Pills to fill you up.
Pills to make you active.
Pills to slow you down.
Pills to make you happy.
Pills to make you down.
Pills to make you alive.
Pills to make you dead.

Can't we live without pills?

So you sometimes feel lost, alone in a student body of 2,408?

Fort Hunt is a large school, one of the largest in the county. A fact of which to be proud, or is it?

Sometimes a person can lose a vital part of the "self" when grouped collectively under the title of Federal. In trying to escape this title, one is often the victim of ridicule and ostracism. Not to criticize, some people find security in belonging, evidenced by the many organizations at Fort Hunt; but he who doesn't want that kind of security, he who finds security within himself, nothing's wrong with that, is there?

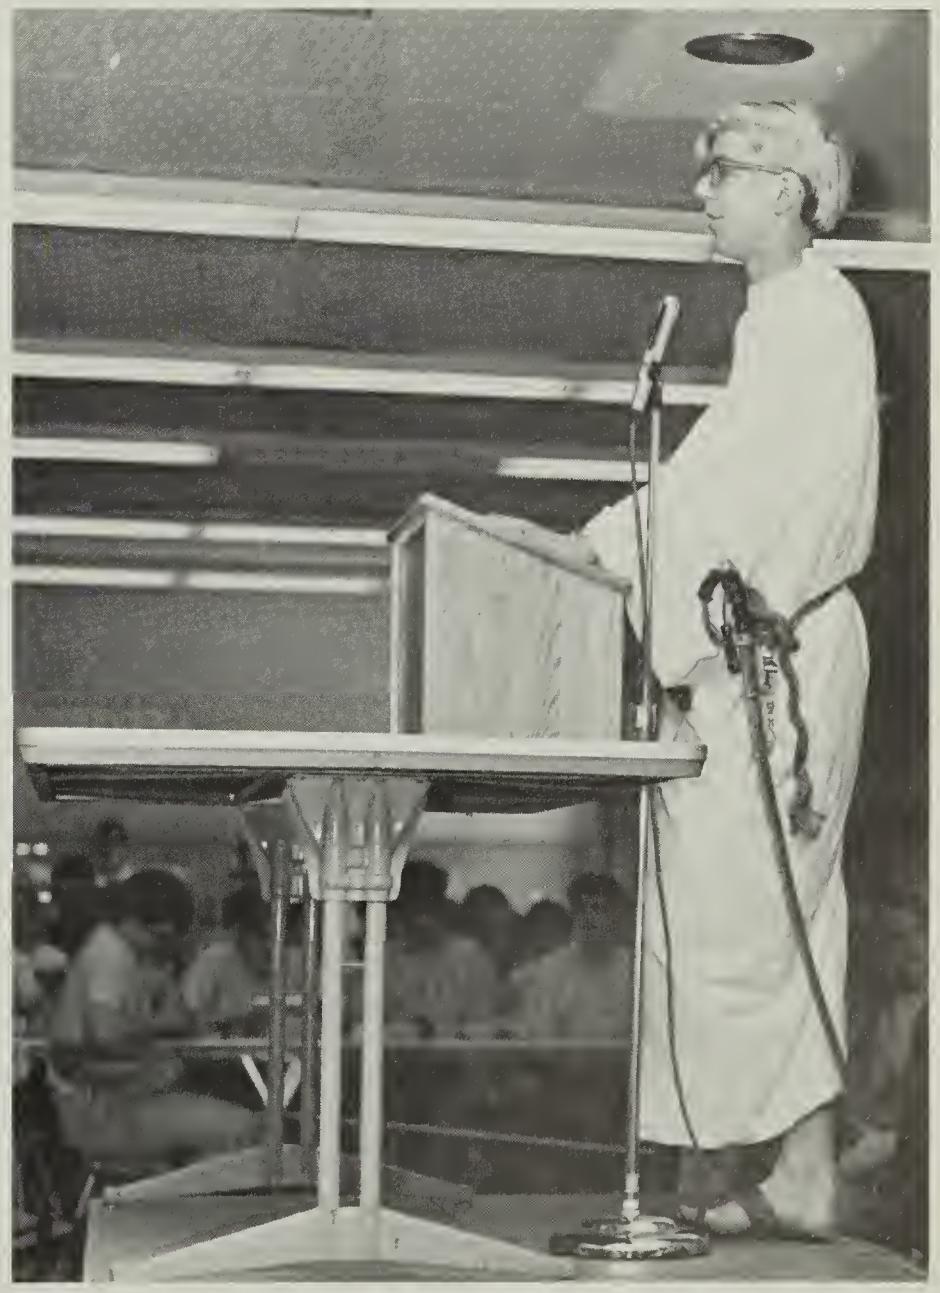

To belong or to be apart . . . we have that choice, don't we?

Do you realize that at the same time you throw your unwanted food in the trash can someone, somewhere, may be scrounging through trash-cans to live?

The fact that we don't eat our food is not as important as the realization that waste has become a way of life in our community. We have always been taught to share, but when will we begin?

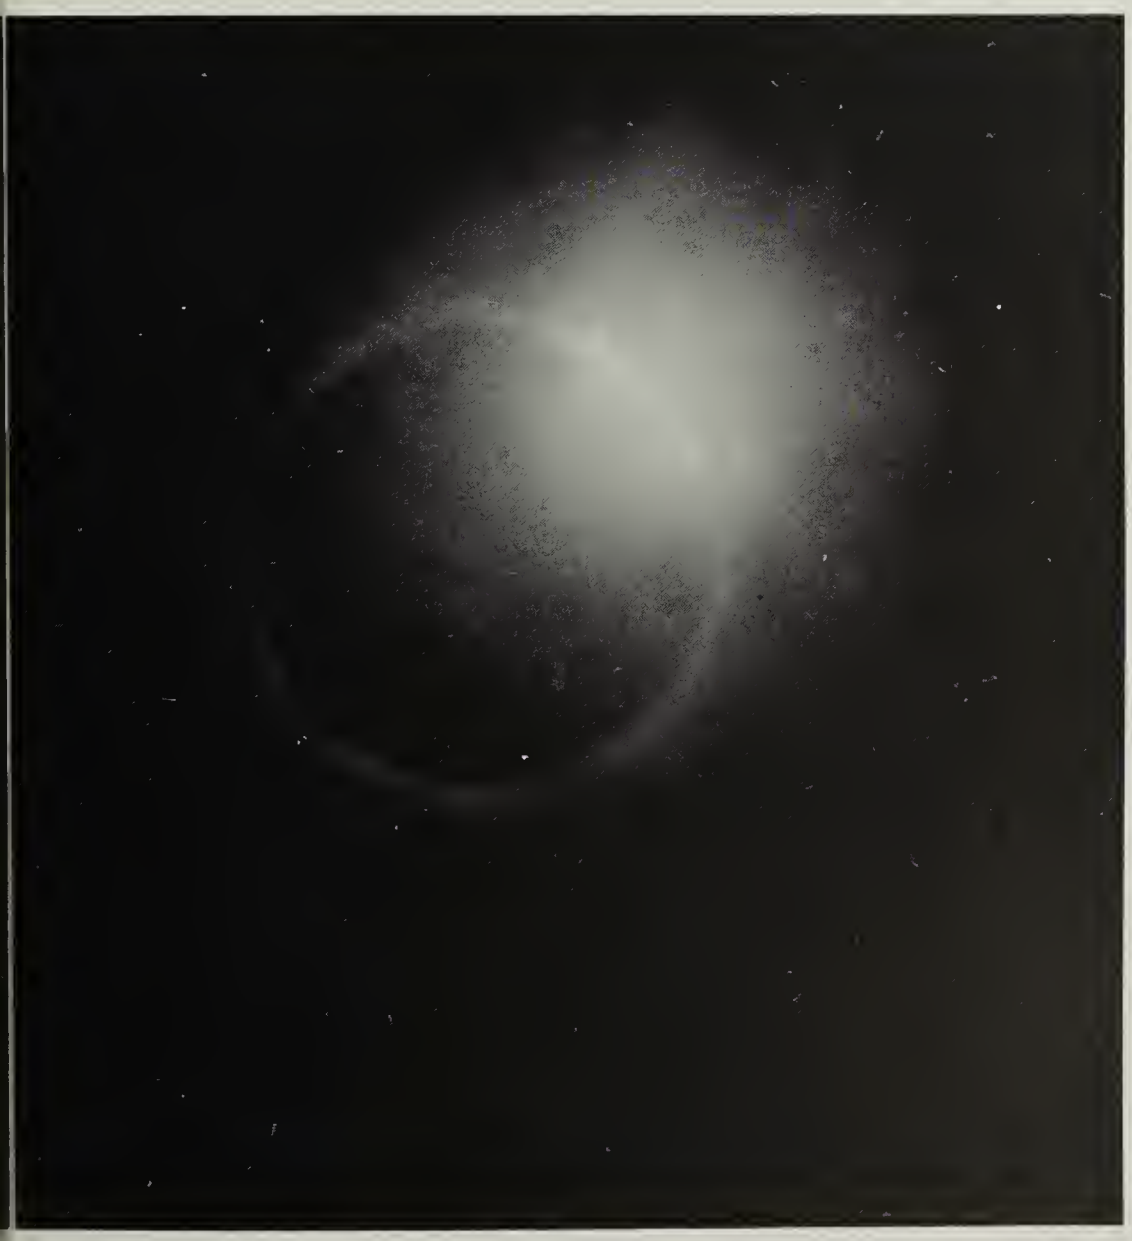

It is an accepted fact that Seniors at Fort Hunt are superior to all "underclassmen"; that being a Senior is the pinnacle of one's high school career.

The failure of the "Spirit Stick" to unify Fort Hunt with school spirit is evidence of the wide gap between classes. Wouldn't it be great if we could all work together as one school rather than four separate classes? After all, isn't unity success and progress?

"It's a real shame."
"Imagine, ten people in one room."
"Pity, a real pity."

Many people just can't understand how those who live in the ghetto can survive. These people are usually those with nice homes; very isolated from the city.

The problem of life in the ghetto is easily recognized, but action is slow to materialize. There are too many other aspects of the problem; political, social, and cultural for people to get involved.

"It's a real shame."

It's a long way in.
Is it a long way out?

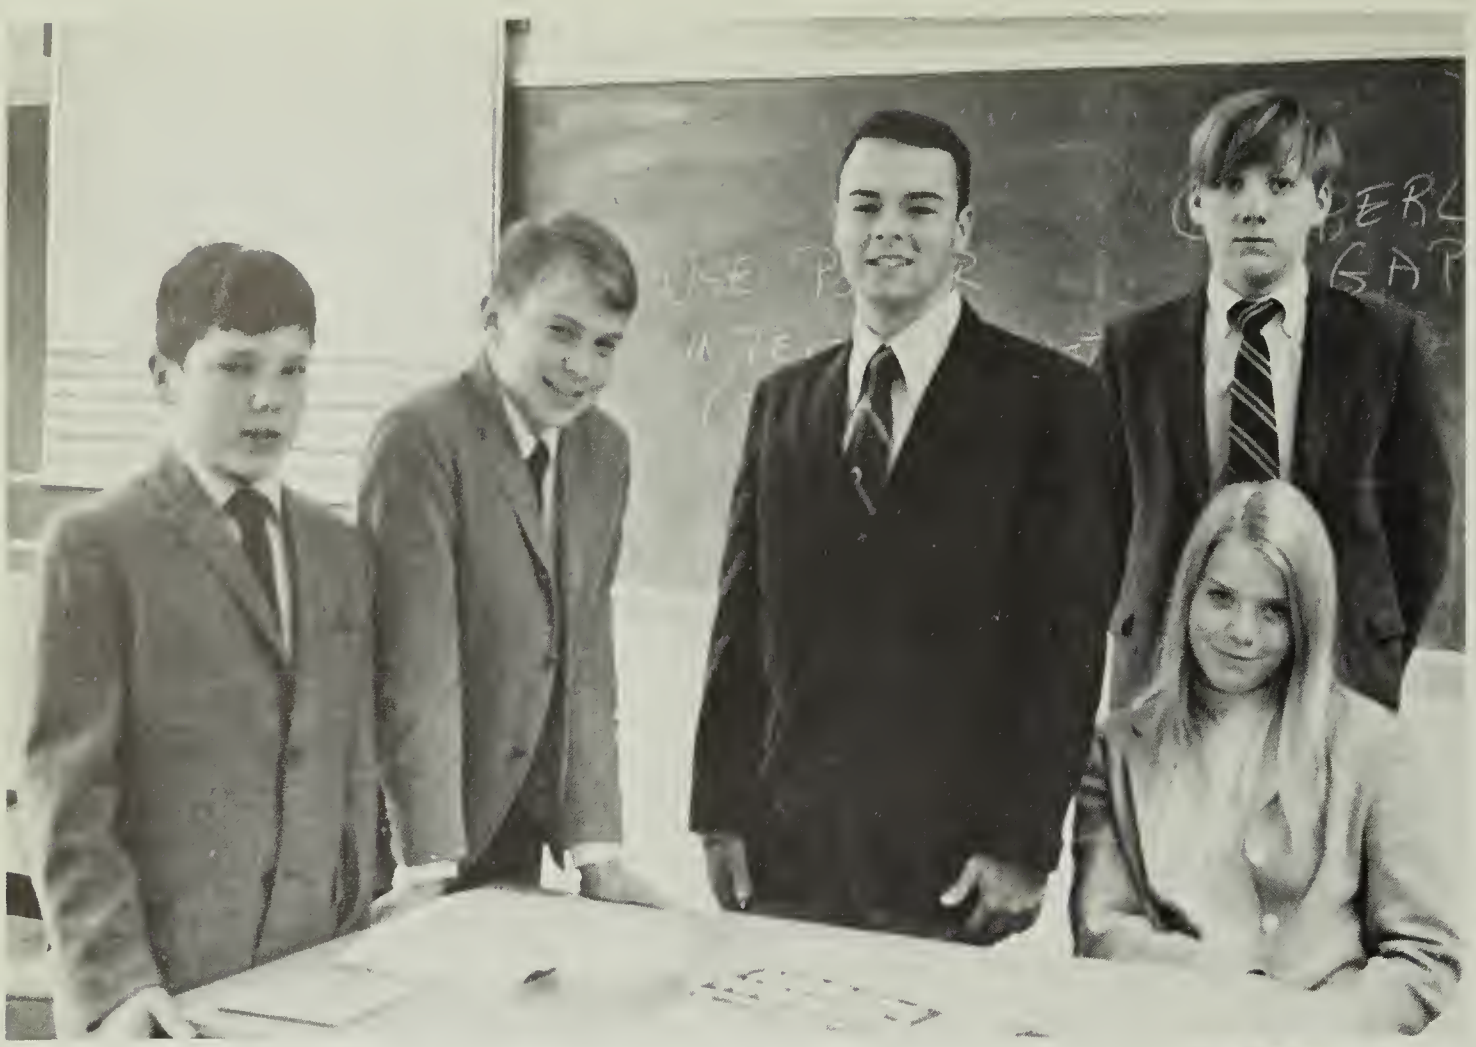

FRESHMAN CLASS OFFICERS

J. Sheehan, R. Coffey, B. McFarland, S. Bennett, D. Turner.

FRESHMAN CLASS SPONSORS

Miss Baker, Mr. Levy.

FRESHMAN CLASS COUNCIL

Row 1: S. Bennet, R. Coffey, B. McFarland. Row 2: M. Zacharias, P. O'Rourke, D. Hammond, S. Farris, C. May, M. Hughes, C. Larson. Row 3: J. Chau, D. Pumphrey, J. Livingston, B. Rettig.

The Freshman Class is a delver into details. Concerned with the amount of toilet paper in bathrooms, Fort Hunt's second largest class strives to improve the school. A tree was hoped to mark the growth of the class and Ron Coffey, president, promised a 50% success on campaign promises or a resignation by January 1. Time tells all.

JUNIOR CLASS

The Class of 1971 pledges total involvement, boasts the highest Homeroom representation, and the use of over 340 students in class sponsored activities. Full of enthusiam, Junior Class posters were the first on the walls in September and football players were served snacks weekly. Sadie Hawkins recorded the best and the worst of the year. Is this Class a signal of the future?

ERIC ZIMMERMAN

At 10:15 a.m., December 10, 1969, Terry Shawn, First Vice-President of the Senior Class announced:

At this time we would like to pay tribute to a very fine young lady, Karen Halsted, who had fought a long, valiant fight against certain physical problems, including a heart which was damaged by rheumatic fever at an early age. Yesterday after a heart failure, she passed from our lives.

An usual, Karen was enthusiastically participating in a school activity, just as she always did, whether it were in the classroom, as a library assistant or helping her classmates.

Karen was admired and respected by those who knew her for her sincerity, kindness, gentleness, enthusiam and concientious effort to do a good job in all she attempted; but most of all for her courageous fight to overcome numerous physical handicaps that had existed since early childhood.

We, and members of the medical profession, owe much to Karen. Because of the nature of her illness and because of her response to experimentation by teams of doctors, she contributed in a vast way to world-wide medical knowledge and treatments.

Few of us are willing in a longer life time to give as much as Karen did in her 18 years. If we all used and developed our normal faculties and attitudes as well as she did, it would truly be a better world in which to live.

HOMECOMING

A week that memories were made of. Homecoming 69! The traditional bonfire, complete with the burning of a "Warrior" effigy, and the pounding of the Senior Class Spirit Drum set things in motion for a homecoming victory over Wakefield. The sophomore float, "Linus in the Pumpkin Field" won first prize in the halftime parade, immediately preceeding the halftime coronation of Sarah Knight. Sarah was crowned the 1969 Homecoming Queen by Sue Arison, last year's queen, and reigned at the dance the following night, where the theme "Harvest Moon" was used to create the setting of a moonlit autumn night.

The approximate frequency response curve is in blue at left It is not linear, as in a response curve of a midrange speaker (in black) This is due to Z (impedence) change of ion stream. The cutoff of bass frequencies is due probably to flame's physical size.
When electron pressure across the 2 electrodes increases ionic conduction increases, therefore decreasing Z and increasing current (milliamperes) The higher the electron pressure the more faithful the reproduction

MR. WONDERFUL

With the arrival of Valentine's Day, Tri-Hi-Y and Hi-Y presented the annual Mr. Wonderful Dance. The gym became an anachronism of medeival days complete with castle, drawbridges, and knights. Senior Pat Ryan was proclaimed "Knight of the Night" as the dance was highlighted by the announcement of Mr. Wonderful 1970.

BLACK HISTORY WEEK

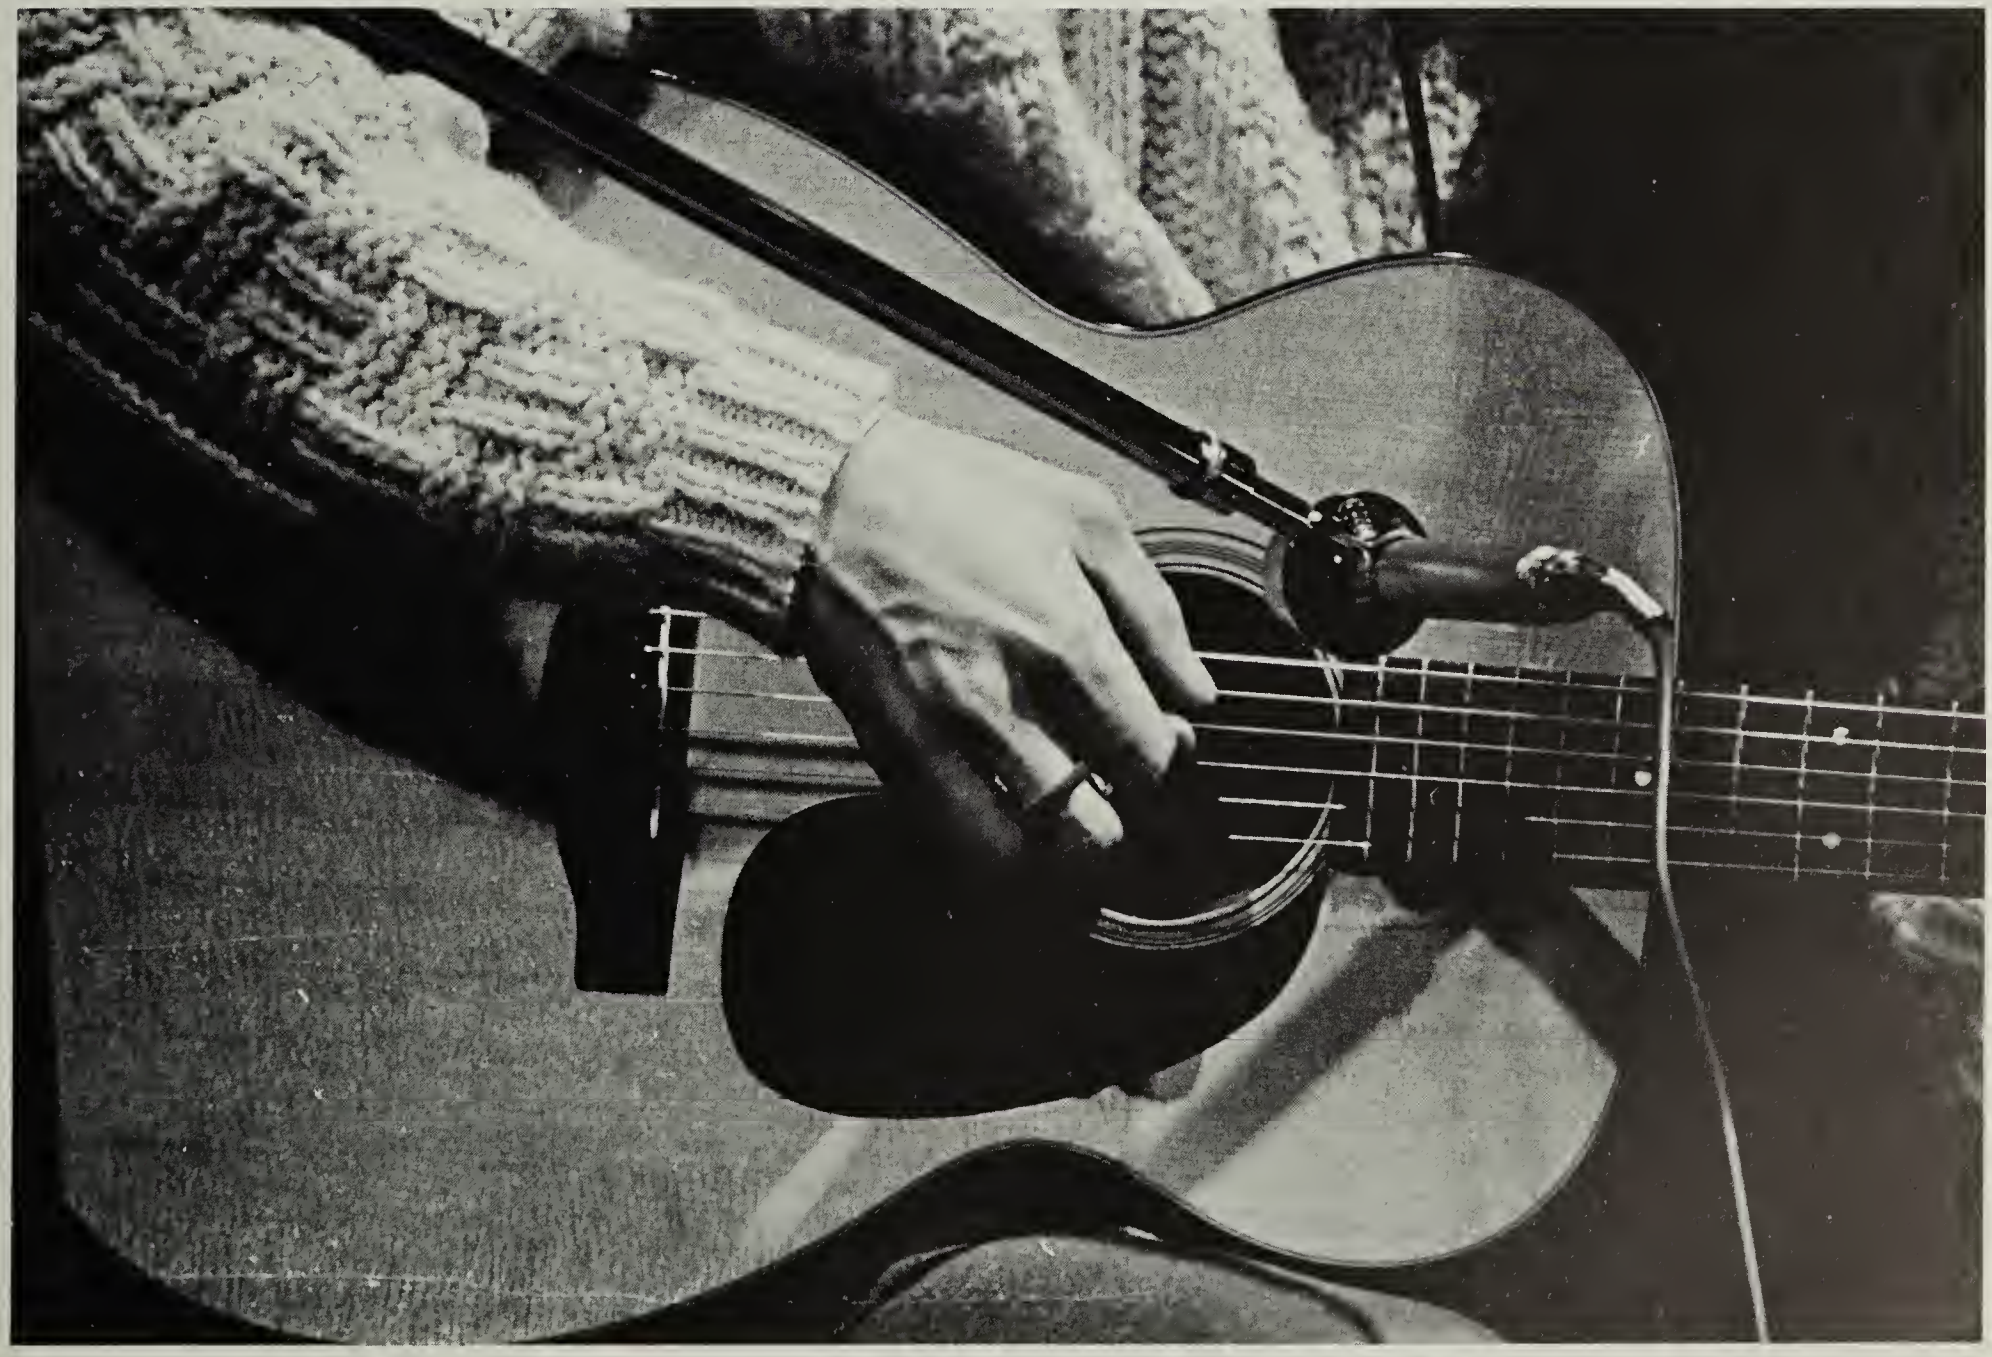

Feb. 9-13, Fort Hunt held its first Black History Week. The program for the week was sponsored by a new all-black service group, the Follow-ups, under direction of Miss Eubanks and Mr. Pate. The various activities attempted to teach a white society the accomplishments, culture, and destiny of the American Negro. Functions included roving seminar groups, a Black fashion show, a soul food sampling, and literature distributed by Journalism I students. The festivities culminated with an unannounced but impressive speech by Reverand Walter Fauntroy, "A Legacy of Honor, Heritage of Shame."

FOLK CONCERT

The folk Concert has become a part of Fort Hunt this year. The Turret sponsored several, and the melodies of Ronnie and Ellwood have become established sounds. The Folk Club provided a stimulating atmosphere for those who take an interest in its music. It was not an uncommon sight to a group outside during the warm weather.

Fort Hunt's version of Neil Simon's "Come Blow Your Horn," met with standing ovations. An adult comedy, "Horn" displayed the unique abilities of David Stopper, Kym Powell, Bill Swiggard, Lindele Pinckney, Ellwood Wheatley, Deneen Crandall, and Connie Fradenburg.

COME BLOW YOUR HORN!

SPIRIT!

Spirit! A unique music sound filling the gymnasium with its power. The jazzrock supergroup wheeled and spinned with their music, as the sound and excitement they created went hurtling through the crowded gym.

EXPANSION

Begun last spring, the lecture-demonstration hall and planetarium opened this fall at an expense of over $200,000. The planetarium sports carpeting, lounge-type chairs, and a sterophonic presentation which surround the celestial projector creating the impression of a space odyssey. The lecture-demonstration hall seats over 200 and is used by both the students and the community.

INTERNATIONAL BANQUET

The annual International Banquet was a tremendous success. Students provided the feast from foreign recipes. Caesar and Calpernia opened the banquet with a libation to the gods; the festivities included native costumes, German and Spanish music, and numerous International skits. All this contributed to create a lively, enjoyable atmosphere.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

As the National Honor Society altered its procedure of induction, Frank Queen and Ed Simmons rejected the honor of the Society. Why? In a decade which attempted to give equality to all, at least two felt that students should not be singled out on the basis of service, character, and leadership.

The J.V. Basketball team's 5–13 record this year was the result of injuries and little experience. Fort Hunt's first winter track team was the victime of winter. The extremely cold weather hampered this years team, causing a slow start which picked up, allowing the team to win its last few meets and place 5th in district competition. Short hours of practice and new coaches caused much disorganization, contributing to early losses. The season picked up however, and the team made a strong finish.

Ft. Hunt's spring track is strong in returning players this year. Pip Lindsay, Gordon Littig and Jim Discuillo, Ft. Hunt's long distance trio can be counted on to turn in an excellent performance once again.

CROSS COUNTRY

Cross Country's fifth place finish in the state was aided by the winning of first place in the District and coming in second in the Northern Virginia Regionals. Jim DiScuillo won the Most Valuable Team Member Award. The JV had an excellent season also.

HOCKEY

Girl's Varsity Hockey, with an over all record of 3–4–1 boasts that in all their winning games, the opposing team was always scoreless. Half way through the season their center forward developed elbow trouble and the J.V. team bemoans the fact that they lost all their games except for the tied two.

This year reflects both the best and worst of Fort Hunt, but we have asked WHY? The questions that have been raised and the changes that have been brought about, must not stop on June 10th. This year is only a beginning. If we are to truly learn throughout life we must continue to investigate and pursue the things that will help mankind progress. Together we must all move forward in a spirit of brotherhood and open-mindedness.

Therefore, this book is dedicated to those who question.
